

Please approve the "portability rule". The wireless phone companies are holding us captive! I can't switch companies because too many of my customers have my current cell number. It would hurt my business tremendously to switch, so I'm stuck with mediocre service and dropped calls. Thank you.